

April 27, 2020

To: All Illinois Early Intervention Providers

From: Arkeitha Monroe May, MOB
Early Intervention Central Billing Office
Senior Director of Claims and Billing

Re: Electronic Remittance Advice (ERA)/ Electronic Data Interchange (EDI) 835 Files

The Early Intervention Central Billing Office (EI-CBO) is pleased to announce that Electronic Remittance Advice (ERA) /835 files are now available through Availity. Providers may register to receive Early Intervention Central Billing ERAs / 835 files through the Availity website at www.availity.com. Accounts to access EI-CBO ERAs are free to Early Intervention providers. Please note that Availity has informed us that Denial Reasons will not be listed in the files. That information is still available on the EI Provider Claim Summary for reconciliation purposes.

For questions on creating an Availity account or how to locate ERA files please contact Availity Customer Service at 1-800-282-4548.